Xuan Kong Da Gua Correspondence Course

Xuan Kong Feng Shui consists of two departments – Fei Xing and Da Gua. Any one without the other is incomplete. Xuan Kong Da Gua 玄空大卦 is the body (Ti 體). Xuan Kong Fei Xing 玄空飛星 is the application (Yong 用).

Fei Xing or Flying Stars has become popular ever since Qing Dynasty scholar Shen Zhu Reng 沈竹礪 introduced the method in his book <Shen Shi Xuan Kong Xue 沈氏玄空學>. Xuan Kong Da Gua has been treated as the top secret and is taught only to indoor disciples at the last stage of learning. Therefore, it is not known to most people although most people have heard about it.

Some people who practice Fei Xing consider Da Gua as fake Feng Shui. The contrary is also not uncommon. It only shows that these people do not possess the key to the treasure cavern.

Xuan Kong Da Gua originates from the famous Square-Circle Diagram (Fang Yuan Tu 方圓圖) passed on to Shao Yong 邵雍 by Chen Tuan 陳搏 although both of them did not practice Feng Shui. It is the map of Earth Qi Distribution. Xuan Kong Fei Xing uses the changing Heaven Qi Distribution. Earth qi is yin and therefore, the body. Heaven qi is yang and therefore, the application. Body without application is useless. Application without the support by the body is ineffective. This is the reason why some people find Flying Stars work sometimes but do not work some other times.
